

A diagram illustrating the Model-View-Controller (MVC) pattern. It consists of three yellow rectangular boxes with dark brown borders. The 'Controller' box is positioned at the top center. The 'View' box is located at the bottom left, and the 'Model' box is at the bottom right. The boxes are arranged in a triangular layout, representing the relationships between the three components.

Controller

View

Model